Christmas Events

Christmas Events

Christmas is coming! While it might seem a long way off for some, others have already started planning for the festive season.

After the disruptions of the last couple of years, Council and various community groups are looking forward to hosting some Devonport's most beloved events as the year draws to a close.

The giant community Christmas Tree will go up in the Rooke Street Mall, surrounded by artwork from local children, at the end of November, signalling the start of the festive season.

Council, with the assistance of Mersey SES, will be hosting the traditional Christmas

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Registrations to enter a float will be available via Events@devonport.tas.gov.au.

The East Devonport Child and Family Learning Centre, East Devonport Community House, Rotary Club of Devonport South-East, Housing Choices Australia, and Pathway Shed will be helping Santa tour East Devonport as part of Christmas in the East on Saturday 3 December. Families are encouraged to stay close to home and come out to greet Santa as he wends his way through the Eastern Shore area.

All is merry and bright with Devonport's Carols By Candlelight. This is a Soroptimist International event, held with the assistance of Lions Club of Mersey-Devonport, Council, City of Devonport Brass Band and Devonport Strikers. After the success of last year's event, Carols will again be held at the Devonport Soccer Complex where community groups, local performers and Mr and Mrs Claus will get everyone into the Christmas spirit. The two hour concert will be held on Sunday 4 December.

If you have a festive event scheduled for December that you'd like us to promote, send your information to events@devonport.tas.gov.au

For information on these and other events, check out Devonport Events on Facebook and the What's On page on the Devonport City Council website: www.devonport.tas.gov.au/whats-on-devonport/

Devonport let's celebrate International Day of People with Disabilities!

Saturday 3 December marks International Day of People with Disabilities. A United Nations observed day aimed at increasing public awareness, understanding and acceptance of people with disability.

The Devonport Access and Inclusion Working Group and Devonport City Council are looking to build a calendar of events that involve, embrace and celebrate our community members and carers living with disability.

We are encouraging service providers, community groups and businesses to get involved with hosting an event or activity on or around International Day of People with Disabilities.

Contact us if you are hosting an event between Wednesday 23 November – Sunday 4 December that is:

- Accessible and inclusive
- Free or good value for money
- For Devonport residents
- Follow COVID safe practices (we no longer require covid safe plan as per Public Health guidelines)

Events already scheduled for this period: Activate Inclusion Day, Devonport Christmas Parade, Christmas in the East and Carols by Candlelight.

Send details of your event to: Events@Devonport.tas.gov.au by Tuesday 8 November

- Event title and description
- Organisation running the event
- Date time and location
- Cost
- How can people register and/or learn more about the event (phone, email and/or website), and
- Please let us know if you need extra support or resources to plan or run your event

Probus Day

This year on Saturday 1 October, tens of thousands of Probus members across Australia will be celebrating Probus Day. This date also acknowledges the United Nations' Day of Older Persons highlighting the important contributions that older people make to society.

Nationally, Probus Clubs provide retirees the opportunity to socialise with fellow retirees in their local communities and have fun and foster new friendships. There are over 1,400 Probus Clubs across the country where retirees participate in a variety of regular activities, join in trips and outings and listen to interesting guest speakers.

The theme for Probus Day is "Probus provides unlimited possibilities in Retirement". Throughout the month of October, members will have the opportunity to celebrate the positive social connections they make through their Clubs. Probus Clubs have organised a range of celebrations including themed meetings, functions, BBQs, picnics, special morning teas and so much more.

To find your local Probus Club, visit our Club locator www.probussouthpacific.org or call us on 1300 630 488.

Assisted voting service for the 2022 local government elections

At each of the 29 councils, a private and separate space will be provided for a professional, confidential and impartial voter assistance service. This space will be used by people who require assistance to vote. The service is expected to run during the week commencing Monday 17 October 2022 during each council's office hours. It is expected that there will be at least one full day of this voting service at each council. Times will be published on the Tasmanian Electoral Commission website

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

The TEC will employ independent, professional experienced polling staff at each location to assist the voter with the voting process. In addition, COVID-safe measures will be in place, including the wearing of N95 masks by staff.

Voters using the service should bring with them their ballot pack delivered in the post. If the voter does not have their ballot pack, the staff member may assist them in applying for a supplementary ballot pack while they are at the council. Once the voting process is complete, the staff member can assist the voter to place their completed postal vote in the ballot box onsite.

If required, there is the option for voters to receive car-side assistance. This means the voter can remain in their vehicle and vote while in the car with assistance from the staff member.

To book a time for assisted voting, voters can call the TEC phone system (Free call 1800 801 701) or send an e-mail to a designated e-mail address. This booking system will open from Monday 10 October. Information on the booking system will be available on the TEC and local council websites and via disability networks.

Community Services Fuel Relief Program

The Tasmanian Government has established the Essential Community Services Fuel Relief Program. This is a relief package for not-for-profit organisations to help ensure essential support services for Tasmanians in need can continue, uninterrupted.

The total funding pool available for eligible organisations under Round Two of the Program is $135,000; with each eligible organisation able to apply for a maximum of $1,000.

Funding is provided on a first come-first served basis. The Program will provide a reimbursement that covers twenty per cent of eligible fuel costs for the period from 1 July to 31 October 2022. Under the Program eligible organisations will receive $20 for every $100 spent on fuel costs for Essential Community Services, with a maximum amount of $1,000 available per applicant.

For further information, please contact Community Grants by email at csrgrants@communities.tas.gov.au or phone on 1800 204 224 or visit the website: www.communities.tas.gov.au/csr/Grants/essential-community-services-fuel-relief-program

Rebuilding Regional Communities (RRC) grants are available to not-for profits assisting remote, rural and regional communities to recover from, and adapt to, the impacts of COVID.

Applications that support community-led, place-based initiatives addressing at least one of these key program objectives will be considered:

- enhance the process of community recovery from COVID
- communities reduce social isolation and foster stronger, more resilient
- sustain local organisations and their work

Micro grants of up to $10,000 are available for community-led initiatives that directly and clearly benefit local communities that strengthen local people, places and climate solutions.

Larger grants are offered twice a year for requests between $10,001 and $50,000.

Strengthening Rural Communities Round 15 has just opened, and this round includes both tiers of RRC grants. Applications for this round are due by:

- Micro grants: 5pm AEDT, 29 November 2022
- Larger grants (two stage process): EOIs 5pm AEDT, 18 October 2022; Full applications (by invitation) 5pm AEDT, 29 November 2022

Citizen Science: Bogong Moth Tracking

Each spring, Mountain Pygmy-possums emerge from hibernation, looking for Bogong Moths to eat. Bogong Moths usually fly to the possums' mountain home in Victoria and NSW in the billions, but fewer moths have arrived over the last few years and the Mountain Pygmy-possums numbers have decreased.

Bogong Moths usually migrate each year to the Australian Alps. Recent research suggests they may be in South Australia, Western Australia and Tasmania, but more data is needed.

If you see a Bogong Moth, upload the photo and location to Moth Tracker. This will help scientists better understand if the moths will make it to the mountains this year.

Your Bogong Moth sightings can help change the future of Critically Endangered Mountain Pygmy-possums and Endangered Bogong Moths.

Tasmanian Youth Story

The Youth Network of Tasmania (YNOT) is seeking Tasmanians 18-25 years to participate in one-on-one conversations to unearth the Tasmanian Youth Story!

Conversations are happening in the North and North-West regions throughout September – from rural communities, to towns and cities – we are coming to a place near you!

This is an opportunity for young people to share what it is really like being a young person living in Tasmania – the good and the bad.

Through storytelling, we will help decision-makers better understand the opportunities, challenges, wants and needs of young people 18-25 years and influence public policy, projects and initiatives that impact them.

Young people will receive a $100 gift voucher in recognition of their time and contributions.

Interested? Apply today!
