

Devonport City Council Accessibility Statement

Updated: April 2022.

General

Devonport City Council strives to ensure that its services are accessible to everyone. We aim to improve the accessibility of information on our website for as many people as possible.

Accessibility on Devonport.tas.gov.au

Devonport.tas.gov.au makes available the UserWay Website Accessibility Widget that is powered by a dedicated accessibility server. The software allows Devonport.tas.gov.au to improve its compliance with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG 2.1\).

How to use the Accessibility Menu

The website accessibility menu can be enabled either by hitting the tab key when the page first loads or by clicking the accessibility menu icon that appears on the corner of the page. After triggering the accessibility menu, please wait a moment for the accessibility menu to load in its entirety.

Disclaimer:

In an ongoing effort to continually improve and fix accessibility issues, we regularly scan the website content with Userway's Accessibility Scanner.

Despite our efforts, some content on Devonport City Council's website may not meet current accessibility standards. This includes documents received from third parties.
