COVID-19 Safety Plans information session

Business Tasmania has partnered with WorkSafe Tasmania to host an online information session to help you navigate the process of developing your COVID-19 Safety Plan.

Presented by Ken Nolan from WorkSafe Tasmania, Ken will walk you through:

- why you need to have a COVID-19 Safety Plan
- where to find checklists, guidelines and plan templates
- tips and tricks to filling in the plan template or add to your existing workplace plan
- where to get help with writing your plan

If you have an urgent question about your safety plan that you would like covered during the session, please forward it to Business Tasmania by emailing ask@business.tas.gov.au by 12 noon on Tuesday 2nd June.

Prior to the session, you might like to review information on the COVID-19 Safe Workplaces Framework and download the plan template relevant to your business, it can be found here:
